Note that cassette editions require a special tape player that you can receive on a free loan basis from your state or regional library. A Talking Book-type cassette tape player is designed to play specially recorded tapes that are available only to eligible readers. These players are available on loan from the library in your state that serves visually impaired or physically handicapped readers.

Please contact our Magazine Department at 1-800-223-1839 or magazines@aph.org if you have further questions.

APH is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization.
