Hall of Fame: Class of 2022

Kay Ferrell: Teacher, Scholar, and Mentor

Dr. Kay A. Ferrell is Professor Emerita at the University of Northern Colorado (UNC). She has served as Coordinator of the Doctoral Program in Special Education at UNC; Assistant Dean of the UNC College of Education; Coordinator of the Early Childhood Special Education Program, and Coordinator of the Program in Visual Impairment. She served as Associate Director of the American Foundation for the Blind (AFB) Policy Research Center in Washington, DC. Ferrell also had a long career at Columbia University, where she was Coordinator of the Program in Education of Blind and Visually Impaired Learners. She is a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, School of Education's Doctor of Philosophy program in Special Education in 1983.

Dr. Ferrell was nominated by Stuart Wittenstein, Madeline Milian, and Julie Durando.

Trischa Zorn-Hudson: Breaker of Glass Ceilings

Trischa is the most decorated athlete in Olympic or Paralympic history. Her Paralympic swimming career spanned from 1980 to 2004, resulting in 55 medals – forty-one gold, nine silver, and five bronze. She was nominated as Sports Illustrated Woman of the Year in 1988 and was inducted into the International Paralympic Hall of Fame in 2012.

For 10 years Zorn-Hudson taught in the inner-city schools of Indianapolis. She graduated from the McKinney School of Law in Indianapolis in 2007 and works at the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs helping to protect veterans' benefits.

Trischa Zorn-Hudson was nominated by Molly Quinn.

Support the Hall with Engraved Stones on the Wall of Tribute

The Wall of Tribute in the Hall of Fame gives you the opportunity to honor those who have made a difference in your life – a spouse or family member, teacher, organization, historical figure, or other mentor.

The Wall of Tribute is made up of elegant inscribed stones placed in beautifully detailed wooden columns. Each stone is mounted with an accompanying braille label. Five sizes of etched stones are available to be personalized with the wording and/or logo you choose. For a small additional donation, you can receive a duplicate personal presentation stone.

For additional information on this tax-deductible opportunity, please visit: <https://sites.aph.org/hall/donate/> or contact the APH Development Department, 800-223-1839, ext. 393.

Hall of Fame: Leaders and Legends of the Blindness Field is a project of the entire field of blindness. It is curated by the American Printing House for the Blind, a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization.
