

Barrier Breakers Wanted

Are you passionate about making a difference? Are you ready to be part of an organization dedicated to promoting accessibility and empowering those with low vision or blindness? Look no further than the American Printing House for the Blind (APH)!

We're seeking individuals to join our team of Barrier Breakers and contribute to our mission of providing innovative educational resources, products, and services to individuals who are blind or low vision. This is your opportunity to help create an accessible world with opportunity for everyone.

Why Join APH?

- An inclusive and diverse workforce
- Prioritizes employee well-being through regular activities and programs
- Educational assistance and professional development
- A strong union to support workers
- Alternating Fridays off
