

Sara Brown
Public Relations Manager
Sbrown@aph.org
For Immediate Release

APH Celebrates Major Art Weekend with InSights Art

Art on display ranges from paintings and clay to textiles.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (October 2, 2023) – American Printing House (APH) believes that artists who are blind and low vision should have a place to showcase their work. This led to the creation of InSights Art, an annual juried competition for artists of all ages who are blind or visually impaired. Held in Louisville for more than 30 years, APH has received more than 300 pieces of art from all 50 states and many countries across the globe.

The media is invited to attend this year's InSights Art Exhibit. The best artist availability will be during the celebrations for artists on Friday, October 6 with a “meet the artists” session at 5:00 p.m., followed by dinner and the awards ceremony, which starts at 6:30 pm.

Additional arrangements can be made to interview artists, and the exhibit director outside of that time. Email Sara Brown, at sbrown@aph.org in advance to set up interviews.

InSights Art Exhibit

October 4-7: Thursday 1-5 pm, Friday 8 am-5 pm, and Saturday 8 am-noon
Hyatt Regency: 320 S 4th St, Louisville, KY

View sample artwork from first place winners here.

About American Printing House for the Blind

The American Printing House for the Blind is a worldwide leader in designing innovative lifelong learning solutions for children and adults who are blind or low vision. In this fast-changing world, we believe in the power and necessity of learning to open the doors to educational success, satisfying employment, social inclusion, active citizenship, and personal well-being. We level the learning playing field by providing specialized technology, materials, products, and services that are essential for education and life. The American Printing House for the blind is headquartered at 1839 Frankfort Avenue in Louisville, Kentucky. For more information, please visit www.aph.org.

###